

NOMINATION FORM

2011 Lifetime Business Achievement Award

Award to be presented in May 2012 at the Renfrew & Area Chamber of Commerce annual Awards Banquet to be held at the Best Western, Renfrew.

Lifetime Business Achievement

Selection Criteria: This award celebrates the past, present and future of a Renfrew and area business and its owners. It is in recognition of the long-term social, cultural and economic contribution of local family operated business as opposed to a publicly traded company. The chosen business will have been an active and successful enterprise for at least 20 years and be looking forward to many more years of continued success. The owners will have demonstrated leadership and entrepreneurship during changing economic environments. They must also be considered a good employer by its employees, be involved in the community and actively supportive of local events and organizations.

NEW: Three finalists will be chosen and their names announced prior to the banquet. The winner will be announced during the Awards Banquet.
